Notice of forthcoming election to APAGBI Council: 1 Home Member

Nominations are sought for a vacancy on APAGBI Council with effect from May 2023. The election will be held during January and February 2023 and will be conducted by the Civica Electoral Service. Home Members are appointed for four years.

The successful candidates will be expected to attend the three full meetings of Council each year, face to face or virtual (most are held in London) and occasional ad hoc meetings, as required.

During their term, Elected Officers are expected to assume responsibility for APAGBI projects and activities, which may include one or more of the following positions:

- Meetings secretary
- Webmaster
- Lead for information for patients and families
- Lead for guidelines
- Linkman lead
- Lead for Audits and Surveys
- Perioperative care
- Non-specialist advisor (If appropriate base hospital)
- Lead for Peer review
- Involvement in Education and Training or Science committees.

The APAGBI will reimburse expenses according to its agreed policies. Members wishing to stand can nominate themselves by completing a nomination form and obtaining support from two Full or Honorary Members of the APAGBI.

Candidates will need to provide a short supporting statement (no more than 300 words), which will be circulated with the ballot papers. The nomination and supporting statement forms are available on the APAGBI website: <http://www.apagbi.org.uk/about-us/council/election-council>

Completed forms should be submitted by e-mail to the APAGBI Secretariat to arrive no later than 5pm on February 28th, 2023.

Please note that both nominees and their proposers must be consultants and APAGBI members but may be drawn from any of the five relevant constituencies.
