

Date: November 7th 2024

Where: One Birdcage Walk
: Westminster

5 CPD points

Royal London 23rd Paediatric Anaesthesia Education Day: Mind and Machine Now and in the Future

Session 1: Thinking Machines

The Role of AI in Paediatric Anaesthesia - Dr Allan Simpao – Children's Hospital of Philadelphia.

Using Data from your Electronic Systems - Dr Sarra Wang – Royal London Hospital

Session 2: Thinking Beings

The Bath Centre for Pain services and tips for managing complex pain patients- Dr Valerie Rogers- Royal United Hospitals Bath

Strategies for Communicating with Children at Different Stages of Development - Dr Elizabeth Nash- Royal London Hospital

Debate: Not incorporating AI into paediatric peri-operative care would be unethical.

Session 3: Preserving the Thinkers of the Future

Nurse Led Sedation for MRI - Dr Grant Stuart- Great Ormond Street Hospital

Paediatric Mechanical Thrombectomy - Dr Vandita Ralhan-
Royal London Hospital

Management and Transfer for the Child with A Traumatic Brain
Injury - Dr Amrit Roopra- Royal London Hospital